STATE CONVENTION.

The State Convention of the Democratic-Conservative Party of North Carolina will meet at Greensboro on Wednesday, the first day of May next. Delegates to the Convention will be asked over the several railroads for one fare.

DISTRICT CONVENTION.

The District Convention of the Democratic-Conservative Party of the 7th Congressional District, will meet at Wikesboro, on Thursday, the 2nd day of May, 1872.

WAKE COUNTY DEMOCRATIC-CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION.

The Democrats and Conservatives of Wake county will assemble in Convention at the Court house in this city, on Saturday, May 18th, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the various county offices to be filled in the approaching election in August next, and to thoroughly organize the party in the county for the coming election. Townships are requested to hold meetings and appoint delegates.

DISTRICT CONVENTION.

The District Convention of the Democratic-Conservative Party for the nomination of a candidate to represent the Fourth Congressional District and for such other matters as may come before it, will be held in the city of Raleigh on June 6th, 1872, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

The Executive Committee will endeavor to make arrangements with the various Railroads to pass delegates at half fare. Due notice of this and other necessary matters will be announced. By order Executive Committee, R. W. YORK, For Committee.

FIRST DISTRICT.

In pursuance of the plan of re-organization adopted by the State Executive Committee of the Democratic-Conservative Party, notice is hereby given that a Convention of that party for the First Congressional District has been called to assemble in Edenton on Thursday, the twenty-third (23d) day of May, 1872, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress. It is hoped that every county in the District will be fully represented in this Convention. D. M. CARTER, Chairman District Executive Committee.

OUR CANDIDATES.

Many names have been suggested through the public press as proper candidates to be nominated for the several State offices by the Greensboro Convention. The spirit which has been manifested by the friends of the gentlemen whose names have been mentioned is admirable. There have been no invidious distinctions drawn—no attempt made to deny the merits of any—and not an unkind allusion, that we have seen, in reference to a single gentleman of our party who has been brought forward for any position on the State ticket.

It is true that a great number of distinguished and popular citizens of the State have had their names presented for the responsible position of our banner bearer for Governor. It is true that gentlemen from the Eastern, Western and Central portions of North Carolina have been put forward in the papers as worthy to carry our flag and champion our cause. Yet this has been done with due respect to the feelings and claims of each, and nothing but a spirit of generous rivalry has been exhibited. The same spirit we have no doubt will be manifested at Greensboro on next Wednesday, when the representative men of the State shall gather together in open meeting, to take counsel among themselves as to the best candidates to be selected to lead us to victory in August.

It is impossible to deny the fact that in a Convention representing every part—perhaps every county—of North Carolina, there will be much difference of opinion as to the claims of different public men—their ability, popularity, availability, and peculiar fitness. There will be, necessarily, sectional as well as personal preferences and prejudices entertained by a number of delegates. This of course must be expected. It is human nature and it would be unreasonable to expect otherwise.

While this is so, let each delegate go to Greensboro prepared to lay his prejudices on the altar of his party. In our opinion, the nominee of the Greensboro Convention will be the next Governor of North Carolina. That he will be a noble leader—one worthy of the support of every true and honest citizen in North Carolina—that he will be a gentleman of high character, of intelligence and ability, we are well assured. We believe that the delegates who will represent the best interests of the State at Greensboro will represent those interests faithfully and truly, by the selection of a champion who will lead the friends of honest and economical government and constitutional liberty with credit to himself and with success to our cause.

Let those who shall be most zealous in urging the claims of their respective favorites for the nomination, be prepared to work with greater zeal for the chosen nominee, whoever he may be, and thus show to the country that their zeal was born of patriotism, and not selfish devotion to the interest of any individual.

KU KLUX NO LONGER.

If a man is opposed to Radicalism, no matter how much he is against secret political societies, Ku Klux as well as Union Leagues, he is at once assailed by the Radical press as a "terrible Ku Klux Democrat." Although his whole life may be a living example of obedience to law and lawful authority, yet if he dares to denounce the shameful outrages and crimes of the Radical party, he becomes a traitor to his country, a violator of the law, or if not actually guilty of, at least a sympathizer with, the heinous crimes of the "Ku Klux." If he does not fall down and worship the golden calf of Radicalism, he is held up to the public view as an outlaw and a criminal, and the friend of the outlaw and the criminal, and the whole Radical pack—"Tray, Blanche, Sweethearts"—all bark at him.

But let this self-same individual begin to wax "independent," or in other words, go over to the Radical fold, and the horrible, the inhuman, the monstrous Ku Klux becomes suddenly transformed into a paragon of loyalty, a marvelous proper person—a most worthy and upright citizen, a noble and magnanimous patriot!

GOT HIS PAY.

The now disgraced and chap-fallen Abbott, who has been "clinging on to the skirts of power" at Washington City, lobbying for a seat in the United States Senate to which he had no just claim, has received a crumb of comfort in the shape of full salary of Senator from the time of Gov. Vance's election to the absent and preposterous claims of the rejection of the New Hampshire carpet bagger.

We think the United States Senate committed a grave error when it voted that Abbott should receive pay for contesting Senator Ransom's seat. We do not think the money belonging to the people of the United States should be squandered upon political adventurers and mendicants like Abbott, whose conduct in regard to the Senatorship should excite the contempt and disgust of men of all parties in Congress and out.

A VOICE FROM VIRGINIA.

The people of our Sister State Virginia, are looking on with much interest at the progress of political matters in North Carolina. Our respected contemporary, the Norfolk Virginia, has the following in regard to the Greensboro Convention. Speaking of the question as to what locality the nominee for Governor should be taken from, the Virginia adds:

"We shall not obtrude an opinion on these questions, but we tell our friends, and with us this word has something more than a conventional warmth, that they are expected to do Governor's service in this campaign. Let the men of the West realize the fact that the eyes of their State and the eyes of the South are upon them. They have been oppressed, outraged, wronged, insulted, trampled on, and if they kiss the hand that smites them they never more may boast of their Mecklenburg Declaration. They have an overwhelming white majority in the Old North State, and defeat would be degradation."

SEVENTH DISTRICT.

We notice the names of Major W. M. Robbins, of Roxan, and Colonel A. C. Cowles, of Yadkin, mentioned in connection with the nomination for Congress from this District. Mr. Shober, the present representative, also has many friends who will urge his claims with much zeal before the Convention. The Salisbury Examiner thinks the gallant services to the party rendered by Maj. Robbins, together with his acknowledged ability and eloquence as a public speaker, entitle him to the nomination. The Franklin Courier, of Friday, although not published in the Seventh District, coincides with the Examiner and bestows a high compliment on Maj. R.

On the other hand, the Watchman claims that Mr. Shober ought to be re-nominated.

WALTER A. MONTGOMERY, ESQ.

Among the delegates selected for Cincinnati by the Liberal Republican meeting in this city, on Wednesday, we notice the name of W. T. Montgomery, of Warren. This name must not be confounded with that of our young friend, Walter A. Montgomery, Esq., who is not a Liberal Republican, but a true Democrat, than whom it would be difficult to find in the old County of Warren or elsewhere, a more devoted advocate of our party. Mr. Montgomery is a young lawyer of ability and fine promise, and is the first choice of Warren County for the position of Attorney General.

For the Daily News. For Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Editor of the Daily News: DEAR SIR—Permit me to suggest Prof. O. W. CARR, as eminently suited for the office above named. He is thoroughly educated, and in every sense personally qualified, not simply to fill but to adorn and make useful, that important office. His extensive experience in teaching, his acquaintance with books, men and things, his accurate business habits, and his polished, popular manners, all commend him to the very favorable notice of the Greensboro Convention. CENTRAL.

From the Charlotte Observer. Greensboro Convention.

To one who reads the history of North Carolina with an eye single to interests, it is gratifying to see how all the discordant elements are harmonizing towards one grand result—the redemption of the State. Not only the Conservative Democrats, are alive to the importance of the approaching campaign, but the honest and moderate of all parties are marshaling their forces for a grand rally in favor of economical, honest Constitutional Governments, both State and National. How are we to beat the Radicals—drive out the plunderers and restore prosperity and peace within our borders are the great and all absorbing questions. And first, a broad and liberal platform, with prudent, capable statesmen to stand upon it, and, to work faithfully, untriflingly and unceasingly, until the sun goes down on the day of election, is what is required.

We must have men with clean hands and an unspotted record—men who know our rights, and knowing, dare maintain them. The candidates must be like Caesar's wife, not only pure, but above suspicion. Who are they? I respectfully suggest Hon. D. M. Barringer for Governor, John A. Gilmer, the peerless soldier and orator, for Lieutenant Governor, Judge W. M. Shipp for Attorney General, a man "without fear and without reproach"—a man of profound legal learning—and upon whose every feature and action nature has stamped in indelible characters—Gentleman—John W. Graham for Treasurer—a man whose name is a synonym for fitness, capacity and high integrity. With these names on our tickets, success is certain as the decree of destiny. MACON.

For the Daily News. The Secretary of State.

WARRENTON, N. C., April 26, '72. Messrs. Editors:—I am gratified to see that "Sentinel," the Warrenton correspondent of the Norfolk Journal, has mentioned the name of Major D. S. HILL, of Louisville, in connection with the position of Secretary of State. The suggestion I think, is well timed, and deserves consideration at the hands of the Greensboro Convention. Many eminent men have been spoken of, and their names suggested for the consideration of the Convention, but I know of none better qualified for the office of Secretary of State, and who would discharge the duties of his office with more promptness, fidelity and ability, than Major Hill.

It is true, we have hundreds of men in our State, well worthy of any position, but merit alone is not the only requisite. The coming political contest must be one of some bitterness and unprecedented efforts by both parties, and we ought to have as our nominee, men of might and influence, and who will throw some vim and vigor into the campaign.

Major Hill is such a man. He is well, widely and favorably known throughout N. C., and has many warm friends in every section of the State. He is a polished gentleman, a good business man, a first-rate accountant, well versed in the minutiae of business, and his many friends think a very available candidate for the office of the Secretary of State. Besides Major Hill's services to the party in the past, demand some recognition, and now is the most opportune time for the people of North Carolina to confer an honor upon one of their fellow citizens, who has grown gray in serving them and promoting the interests of truth, religion, temperance and conservatism. A TERRIBLE murder occurred in Wilmington on Friday morning. The affair occurred in a room connected with the National Hotel. Several of the waiters were in the room, a discussion ensuing between John Kittrell and Frank Rowe, both colored. It seemed that Kittrell, in reply to some remark from Rowe, called him a fool. Rowe slapped him in the face when Kittrell stood him, the blade and entering the left side, just below the shoulder blade and severing an artery. Rowe exclaimed, "you have killed me," seized a chair and struck Kittrell twice and walked out into the yard and expired. OUR MURFRESBORO LETTER.

MURFRESBORO, N. C., April 26th, 1872.

After carefully scanning the proceedings of the late Radical Convention, we discovered, to our surprise, that H. H. H. did not vote for Governor, though we knew that the county was represented in that meeting. We have since ascertained that the two delegates from this county being divided in sentiment, had to parry off, and there was no vote from H. H. for either of the candidates. The colored delegate was for Caldwell, while his colleague was strongly in favor of Settle. You must allow us to express our satisfaction on reading the many patriotic and well written letter of Rev. N. B. Cobb in one of your recent issues. He could not have said less under the circumstances, and we candidly believe that he has said it most admirably. We have no patience with political preachers, but we cannot see how any true North Carolinian can be indifferent to the struggle going on in the State between honesty and respectability on one side, against fraud and a want of respectability on the other. Good men dignify a cause, and it is a source of pride to us that so many of the best and the most talented ministers in the State are the staunch friends of the Conservative party. Studiously avoiding any active interference with politics, they are nevertheless ready at the proper time to show their preference by their votes.

Sheriff Pipkin left home yesterday on the "Heaven Smith" to escort Belch to Edenton, where he is to be tried this week before Judge Albertson. It is rumored that Belch has expressed satisfaction at the elevation of Albertson to the bench, as he feared him as a prosecutor, and hopes to escape through the inefficiency of the Solicitor. We can not vouch for the truthfulness of this rumor, nor do we know anything of the Solicitor. We only give the report for what it is worth, without any expression of opinion.

Several gentlemen have left here for Mr. Ed. Wood's isle, below Edenton, and we envy them the jolly good time they will be sure to have down there. Mr. Washington Griffith, one of our best citizens, has the management of the fishery, and we are sure he will do everything in his power to make their visit a pleasant one.

We recollect having read, before Crayon's sketches for Harper's Magazine, an account of his visit to the North Carolina fisheries, and were much pleased with it. To one who has never seen the fishy tribe taken upon a large scale, there is much to be seen and learned by a visit, and we are surprised that many of our people do not come east during the spring to witness the operations of the large seines. But for fear that you will think we are growing "fishy" we will desist.

Bishop Atkinson is expected here next week, and will probably have two services during his stay in this place. We learn that there will be at least two candidates for confirmation.

As the time for holding the Congressional Convention for this district is rapidly approaching, we would respectfully suggest to that body the name of our countyman, Maj. J. J. Yates as a suitable standard bearer in this approaching contest. We are satisfied that he is the strongest man of the party in the district, and should his disabilities be removed before the assembling of the district Convention, we feel almost sure of his nomination. Should Congress however refuse to do so, we then declare our preference for that gallant soldier, and able State Senator, Major L. C. Latham, of Washington. With Yates or Latham, we can go into the canvass without fear feeling almost assured of victory.

HERTFORD.

The Case of Dr. Huston.

The case of Dr. Huston, as it now stands, is very unsatisfactory to the public, and the impression is gaining ground that the church authorities are endeavoring to smother it. The examination of witnesses thus far by Presiding Elder Rogers and Rev. Dr. Gardner, is merely to make up the list of charges on which he is called on to answer before a committee of the church. What progress they have made in the investigation of these charges is not known, but no one can talk with these gentlemen without being satisfied that the proof they have already received is very damaging. There is to-day not a clergyman in the city belonging to Dr. Huston's church, who will undertake to defend him; and it is rumored that Samuel Snowden, his counsel, is anxious to withdraw from the libel suit commenced against the Baltimore American. That paper stands firmly by its accusations, and expresses its readiness to prove its charges before a jury, but no bill of complaint has yet been filed in the case. Dr. Munsey, of the Central church, who advised Huston to fly from the city, telling him at the same time that he believed him to be guilty, has proved all the charges brought against him by Huston to be false and untrue, and on Sunday last preached at Huston's pulpit, which was regarded as an evidence that he has justified himself before the presiding elder. He immediately, on hearing of the charges, demanded the appointment of a committee to accompany him to Parkersburg, Va., which was the location of the origin of the charges, and where it is thought Huston is now hidden away from the world. The delay in the investigation is galling to the feelings of his victims and their families, and friends. He has charged them with being parties to a conspiracy, and has called upon God to witness the truth of his denial of guilt.

Three months have nearly transpired, and no opportunity has been given to prove the truth of their assertions and to show that they are the victims of a professional libertine, who had held them in his toils from childhood. The procrastination is, however, having the effect of silencing all who at first undertook to defend him.

I learn that Presiding Elder Rogers says that he will have his bill of indictment prepared this week to forward to Dr. Huston, and will summon him to appear at the examination of witnesses before a committee of ministers. The bringing the suit against the American has had the effect of intimidating some of the witnesses who can give corroborating testimony of some of the main charges, but the large majority of them are Christian men and women who feel that they have a duty to perform in protecting the innocent and punishing the guilty, and cannot be deterred from appearing before the tribunal that is to find Dr. Huston innocent or guilty.

WARRENTON HOTEL.

FOR SALE.

In consequence of old age and infirm health for the last seventeen years, and not being able to attend to the duties of a hotel, I have resolved to sell the above property. It is located in the town of Warrenton, Warren county, N. C. The hotel contains some thirty rooms, and all necessary out-houses, and can accommodate from 50 to 75 guests comfortably. It is the only public house in the village. Warrenton is celebrated for its healthfulness, good society and schools. There are four churches of different denominations in the village, and it has been for many years a favorite resort of persons seeking health in summer and fall. This property is offered for less than any property of the kind ever offered to the public. I deem it useless to give a further description of the property, as any person desiring to purchase, can examine and determine the premises. I am determined to sell.

The hotel will continue open for the reception of the traveling public, and I will attend to the health of the property, and call upon me. My terms will be moderate.

The Case of Dr. Huston.

The case of Dr. Huston, as it now stands, is very unsatisfactory to the public, and the impression is gaining ground that the church authorities are endeavoring to smother it. North Carolina—Practical Socialism.
RIDGEWAY, N. C.,
March 19th, 1872.

Editor of the South:—The "conservative readers of the South need not be frightened by the above heading! The socialism I am going to speak of is not subversion, but really salutary. I explain: Two of my countrymen, L. Vi-er and Chas. Haetzel, who were employed as gardeners, near Philadelphia, desired strongly to settle in the South,
"to grow grapes, fruits and fine vegetables to advantage," and at the same time "to enjoy a mild and salubrious climate." Their capital was too small to purchase land and to stock it, and they did not want to lease a place, far less to work as employees. I knew sufficiently of them to rely on their skill, energy, probity and executive ability,
and wanting to do a "good turn" to them and to my friend Wm. Scott, of Raleigh, (likewise to the city and environs of Raleigh), I submitted to the latter a plan of partnership, of socialism (of my old ideas), which he, as well as my two French proteges, fully agreed to. That socialism is this: S. sells to the "company," composed of V. of H., and himself, a piece of land (sixty-six acres, at $40 per acre), lying on Walnut Creek, about two miles from the Raleigh capital, to stock the land (horses, implements, seeds, plants, manure, &c.); S. advances to the treasury of the company, the sum of $1,000; he (Scott) may advance a larger sum, at his option, provided V. and H. are both consenting; the cost of land and cash advances to be paid by the company in five years; S. is to have no interest in his capital. On the other side, V. and H. are to have no wages, but at their option, they may borrow from the company's funds each $15 per month for their sustenance during the first six months. When V. and H. will have paid in their shares, at the limitation of the partnership, or at any time previous, they will either receive each $75 per month as a salary, if the socialism continues, or they will either take, in other words, S. H. and V. are joint, equal partners and owners of each one undivided but divisible one-third.

This "revolution" was brought forward in November last. After its acceptance, the opinions of the knowing ones were of the "variety" type;
"Scott had the best of the Frenchmen!"
"The Frenchmen could not grow cabbages, &c., &c., on so poor land!" I pass other foregone conclusions. In the mean time Scott, Vivier, Haetzel, and the "promoter of that socialism" felt undisturbed, positive of what they "were about."

On Friday last I went purposely to Raleigh to investigate what my disciples had been doing, how they felt, how everything looked, and Eureka! They all are satisfied, sanguine, working, sailing! Hundreds of people wonder at the wonders of the French garden, vineyard and nursery! How could those two French agricultural artists have done all that in so short a space of time? Now "well" have cabbages, celery, &c., grown here, instead of having to import them from Baltimore and New York!

V. and H. calculate rightly that in two years they will be even with S. and
S. has figured that his investment, through my advice, is a most excellent one. If no accidents interfere, their property will, in three years, be trebled or quadrupled; take my word for it.

This very morning, I have produced a similar arrangement between Dr. W.
J. Hawkins, of Ridgeway, N. C. (the President of the R. & G. R. R.), and another French socialist, Monsieur E.
Thomas.

Within the three months of my residence here, I have located near me three families of some means, of culture, and of respectability, and I offer to wager a year's subscription to THE SOUTH that before the first of June I will locate at least six more, and that before next Christmas, I will have twenty-five newcomers (heads of families) besides, but friend Thaddeus, how hard I have to work! What piles of letters of inquiry I receive daily! Yet I answer them all, and, if need be, I will engage a secretary, for it has always been one of my principles that a polite and reasonable inquiry deserves a reply of the same kind.

I remain, yours friendly,
J. L. LABAREE.
